His Acte being seven ages. First the Infant,
Mewling, and puking in the Nurses armes :
Then, the whining Schoole-boy with his Satchel
And inking morning face, creeping like snaile
Unwillingly to schoole. And then the Louer,
Sighing like Furnace, with a wofull ballad
Made to his Mistresse eye-brow. Then, a Soldier
Full of strange oaths, and horred like the Pard
Lous in honor, sodaine jarre, backe in quarrell,
Seeking the bubble Reputation
Euen in the Canons mouth : And then, the Justic
In faire round belly, with good Capon lin'd,
With eyes teare, and beard of formall cut,
Full of file-sawes, and moderne instances,
And so he playes his part. The sixt age shifts
To the leane and slipper'd Pantaloone,
With spectacles on nose, and pouch on side,
Young hose well sau'd, a world too wide
For his shrunke shanke, and his bigge manly voice
Turning again toward childish trebble pipe.
